*Make me to know your ways, O LORD;
teach me your paths.*

*Lead me in your truth, and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
for you I wait all day long.*

Be mindful of your mercy, O LORD, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

Do not remember the sins of my youth or my rebellious ways; according to your steadfast love remember me, for your goodness' sake, O LORD.

Psalms 25:4-7

I have yet to meet anyone who relishes the thought of dredging up memories of the mistakes we made years ago. "The sins of my youth" is an expression often used when looking back over one's life and recalling the poor choices and blunders of which we are ashamed. (At least we should feel ashamed.)

We cringe when these past events are brought to mind, wondering why we ever did such things and hoping that no one else will remember them. There is no doubt that the devil uses these "sins of our youth" to tempt us to believe that God will neither forgive nor forget them. Were that to be true, we all would be bound for the eternal damnation we deserve.

King David knew all about guilt and had done much for which to be ashamed in his life. The incident with Bathsheba alone would have been enough to make him want to avoid mirrors lest he look at himself too closely. For David, as it is often for us, one sin led to another. In David's case it went from coveting, to adultery, to murder. Nathan's condemnation of David's sin and David's confession led to a beautiful absolution, "The Lord has taken away your sin."

This pronouncement of forgiveness is also for you. God's love for you prompted him to send Jesus to forgive, redeem and restore you. There is nothing that will ever change that. This season of Lent is a special season each year to reflect on the depth and the cost of God's love in Jesus Christ for you and me.

In order for us to experience the peace of mind and heart that are ours through God's grace we have no choice but to acknowledge that while God's grace is free, it was not cheap. Jesus' horrible death on a cross was because of my sins and your sins. God loves us that much. God would not let the sins of our youth (or of our adulthood) keep us from heaven.

As you journey through this season of Lent, I invite you to remember the promises that God made to you in your baptism. Remember that you are forgiven, you have been delivered from death and the devil and the gift of everlasting salvation is yours. Knowing this, you can bring your sins, (all of your sins,) to the cross and through the love of Jesus, "a new self should arise to live with God in righteousness and purity forever. Thanks be to God!

*Your Servant in Christ,
Pastor Geier*

Sharing a Musical Gift

Julia Ronning, provided an extra punch to her rendition of "I'll Fly Away" during the offertory at the February 11 worship service. Julia also did a lovely Postlude to complete the service. Thanks, Julia, for sharing your gift of piano keyboard excellence and expression with the congregation.

Preschool Chatter

It is hard to believe that it is already March. This school year really is flying by.

Our February fun include learning about kindness and love while celebrating Valentine's Day, pizza, dental health, and Llama Llama stories. Of course a highlight was when we celebrated Valentine's Day with a party that included games, passing out valentines, a special movie, and crafts. Special highlights from our pizza unit were reading a book called "Pete's a Pizza". This book is about a boy whose parents turn him into a pizza. After reading the book our children got to use felt pieces and turn each other into pizzas. Oh the giggles we heard during this activity 😊. Then for snack one day everyone got to create and eat their own English muffin pizzas. Our Llama Llama unit included a PJ and family reading event to end our fun month. Our bible story this month was about love and how much Jesus loves us. We talked about the story in which Jesus said "Let the little children come to me".

Registration for next school year is in full swing. We will have M/W/F, T/Th, and the option of M-F morning classes 9 am-12 pm. Forms can be found on the preschool tab of the church website or on the welcome center. If you or your family, neighbors, or friends have a preschooler, invite them to join us for the 2024-2025 school year. If you have any questions about registration please feel free to call or email Becky or Lorelei at preschool@splchastings.org.

We would like to send a special thank you to those of you who have made donations to our program and who are supporting our program through the Raise Right fundraiser. As of our February 18 order we had raised $315.51 of our needed $471 for our spring field trip!

Thank you for all your prayers and support!

Garage & Plant Sale Planning

June 8, 2024

Planning for St. Philip's 19th annual Garage & Plant Sale will be Thursday, April 18, at 6:30 pm. Lead coordinator, Deborah Dreher, will convene and inspire us into another landmark success.

It would be grand to see experienced department heads and people accustomed to participating attend this kick-off meeting. A fully attended planning meeting builds the kind of enthusiasm this event promises. Plan to come and get in on the ground floor of all kinds of quality fun and fulfillment.

Adult Forum

Hastings Public Schools Update

Dr. Tammy Champa, ISD 200 Hastings Public Schools Superintendent, will be attending the Adult Forum on March 3 as part of her Tour of Gratitude. Dr. Champa will focus on the top five district priorities:

- Student behavior and discipline
- Mental health (students and employees)
- Career education

The District has about 4000 students and 260 teachers. Dr. Champa will entertain questions and suggestions as part of her overview of the current status of the District. In addition, we will discuss opportunities of volunteering under Lutheran Social Service to empower students to achieve and in the Foster Grandparent (Americorps Seniors) Program helping students with their reading skills and sharing their wisdom and experience. Discussion will be in the Learning Room, starting about 10 minutes after the service ends.

Musician Recognition

Over the past year St. Philip's has been blessed with inspirational music from many musicians that enhance our worship. At the top of that list is our organ and piano accompanist Noreen Swanson. In addition to Sunday worship, Noreen serves at special services during Lent, Easter, Christmas, for funerals, and for other services as needed. In March alone, Noreen will be the accompanist at ten services. We are also blessed to have Sam Willis serve as a sub for Noreen once a month. Other musicians include our adult and children's bell choirs and director LuAnn Roiger, children's choirs and director Kelsey Wormley, Unity led by Noreen Swanson, choral ensemble and director, guitar players for Lenten services, and all the song leaders who serve during Lenten services, on Sundays, and for other special services. St. Philip's is grateful to these people for their willingness to share their talents, and we thank you!

Let's Talk About Celebrating First Communion!

Is your child asking about Holy Communion? Often children receive their first communion sometime between first and fifth grade, but there is not a set age. Every person grows in faith in different ways and at St. Philip's, parents take an active role in discerning when it would be best for their children to participate in this part of our life together.

There will be two classes for children and their parents on March 9 and March 23 from 9:00-11:00 am. During these times Pastor Geier will lead families in talking about the gift of Holy Communion and its place in our faith life. These classes are designed to be family time for all ages.

Saturday, March 9, 9:00 -11:00 am: Introduction – “A Place for You!”

Saturday, March 23, 9:00-11:00 am: Closing and Making Banners

Thursday, March 28, 7:00 pm: Maundy Thursday Worship with Celebration of First Communion

If you would like for your child or children to start receiving the sacrament but are able to participate in only one (or none) of the sessions, or will be unable to worship on Maundy Thursday, let me know so that we can make things work. If you have any other questions or concerns or would like to sign up for classes, please contact Pastor Geier at the church office.

Cherub Choir

Always enjoyed at a worship service are music offerings from our cherub choir. They are an enthusiastic and energetic team of voices under the direction of Kelsey Wormley.

Since You Asked . . .

Why do we “have” to celebrate Holy Communion every week?

There is no clear command in Scripture as to how often we are to receive the Lord's Supper and one argument some have used to not offer it weekly is because they do not want it to become routine or lose its special status.

However, does that mean we should also avoid praying too often, or reading the Bible too much? All these acts of worship do not lose their significance because we practice them too frequently, but because we do not recognize our dependence on our Heavenly Father, or the ongoing significance of the crucifixion and resurrection in our lives, and the depth of power available to us in and through them.

Communion is not just special – it's the sacred centerpiece of our worship and our lives. It reminds us of the supreme sacrifice Christ offered and the New Covenant that is now been made available to us through the shedding of his blood. Is that only worth celebrating occasionally?!

In Acts 2:42 Luke explains that one of the key activities to which the early church was devoted as often as they gathered was the breaking of bread, or communion. Even though we are not commanded to observe communion each week, the teaching of Scripture indicates that believers shared the Lord's Supper often – even as often as they gathered.

When we observe communion each week at our worship services, it allows us to reflect on everything that comes before it and focus on the cross of Christ and his return as our eternal hope and joy.

Since the Lord's Supper is of such value, importance, and significance to the gathered church, the real question we should be asking is not why we have communion every week – it's why wouldn't we?

Thanks for asking!

Keeping Connected

Greetings St. Philip's friends,

We have not been in church for a while due to health issues, but we're still here and kicking ("hobbling" is probably a better description ☺). So here's our story.

Brian was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and his family moved to Garrison, North Dakota, when he was two years old. When he was eleven, his family moved to Richfield, Minnesota, where he graduated from high school.

Sue was born in Minneapolis, but her family moved several times – from the Twin Cities to Belmond, Iowa, then Clinton, Iowa (on the Mississippi the year of the Great Flood of '65). Next came Great Falls, Montana, and finally Yakima, Washington, where she graduated from high school.

We met and became friends in French class at Concordia College Moorhead. Brian majored in Math and French; while Sue majored in French and English, with a minor in psychology.

Sue started teaching French and English in Kenyon, Minnesota. Brian started teaching math and French at Hastings High School. We were married at House of Prayer Lutheran Church in Richfield in 1974, and moved to Hastings in 1976. After learning several teachers belonged here, and we were greeted by so many friendly members to make us feel welcome, we joined St. Philip's in 1977.

Sue took a part-time job teaching French at Apple Valley High School, and later, Hastings Middle School, which gave me more time at home raising our first two little ones. When our third arrived, my teaching assignment became full-time. Throughout the years, we took turns traveling between the middle school and senior high. Brian also taught French IV and V for college credit, was the advisor for French Honor Society, and volunteered his time leading concessions for Hastings High School basketball and wrestling.

Together we led a variety of after-school activities open to all our students, including organizing our students to put on a family-oriented Mardi Gras for the Hastings community – twenty of them! We also organized, prepared and led twenty-five – forty-five students for a two and a half week trip to France nine times between 1993-2010. We hoped to instill in our students a love of learning – not only to speak the language, but to appreciate the culture and diversity of other people's perspectives in order to be the best global citizens and ambassadors possible.

While teaching and raising our three children kept our lives on a hamster wheel, we felt blessed to feel grounded in our faith journey with the warmth and support of our St. Philip's family. Over the years we were able to serve in different capacities at various times. Early on, Sue was a member of the Koinonia committee, sang in the church choir for several years and was also a lector. Brian loved playing softball on the St. Philip's team, he was a lector and participated in a number of Lenten service dramas. We both taught Sunday School when our kids were young, and were greeters over the years. Our children were all baptized at St. Philip's, attended Sunday School, VBS, sang in the Children's Choir, attended church camps and retreats, and were confirmed at St. Philip's. We were so thankful for the active youth program for our children's faith education.

After retiring in 2012, we were able to help at a few garage sales cashiering. It was always fun greeting people and sharing their excitement as they checked out with their new-found bargains and treasures! Sue was a Confirmation mentor, served Communion, and also helped occasionally with Third Thursday Phil-Up dinners, with lefse-making a couple of years and then cashiering for the Bake Sale. Since the pandemic and dealing with several health issues, we have been so thankful for the online services.

We feel very blessed that our kids have all settled in the Twin Cities Metro area. During retirement, we love getting together with our family and three grandchildren. We both enjoy reading, and Sue also enjoys photography, scrapbooking, and painting. We also both enjoyed traveling and spending summers working in the garden until last May, after Brian tore a 5" rip in his quadriceps muscle/tendon (which we learned attaches the top of the leg to the bottom of the leg). He is slowly starting to walk again. We are literally taking it day by day and step by step, and are so thankful for Christ's healing powers, your prayers and support this past year. We feel very blessed with so many wonderful friendships we have made and treasure in our St. Philip's family.

Budget Meeting

Almost thirty people attended the budget explanation meeting which was held one week before the annual meeting.

Treasurer Deborah Dreher, took the group through the budget and explained increases and what some line items included. A staff addition is included in the 2024 budget.

2024 St. Philip's Annual Business Meeting

President Dan Strehlow convened the 2024 St. Philip's Annual meeting in the sanctuary, at 10:45 am on February 4, 2024 with more than a quorum assembled. Eighty-nine voting members were on site participants and another ten participated via Zoom.

Treasurer Deborah Dreher presented the 2024 spending plan and took questions regarding the $711,000 budget. Comments from the pre-budget meeting which took place one week earlier were shared. There were no objections raised, resulting in the budget being adopted.

The numerous committee reports were acknowledged. There was one omission in the annual report under the Worship & Music Ministry Team... "Noreen Swanson led Unity in special musical selections in worship services once a month during 2023 plus in other selected services." St. Philip's is blessed to have the musical ministry of Unity. We apologize for this omission.

Also acknowledged were five outgoing church council officers. Danna Elling Schultz reported the results from the six-member nominating committee. The committee members were Bruce Arndtson, Deborah Dreher, Katy Lindberg, Glenda Schnirring, Danna Elling Schultz and Doug Schultz.

Nominees for the 2024 church council were: Alex Zuzek as Vice President and Building and Grounds and Communications, Marketing and Technology Ministry Team liaison; Dolores Pemble, Treasurer; Dave Fry, Stewardship and Fellowship Ministry Team liaison; Marie Gathje, Worship and Music Ministry Team liaison; Jennifer Klos, Faith Formation and Adult Education Ministry Team liaison. A vote was taken with unanimous affirmation of all candidates.

New committees for nominating, auditing, plus delegates to the synod convention were selected and elected for 2024. Meeting adjourned at 11:30 am.

Outgoing officers: Abby Mattimiro, Faith Formation and Adult Spiritual Growth; Marjorie Peterson, Worship and Music; Pam Hoffman, Stewardship and Fellowship; Sadie Reiners, Vice President plus Building and Grounds, Communications, Marketing and Technology; and Deborah Dreher, Treasurer.

Incoming officers for the church council, 2024, are Dolores Pemble, treasurer; Maria Gathje, Worship and Music; Alex Zuzek, Vice President plus Building and Grounds and Communications, Marketing and Technology; and Dave Fry, Stewardship and Fellowship liaison. Not pictured is Jen Klos who will serve as liaison to Faith formation and Adult education.

A potluck lunch with 80 fellow members was enjoyed following the annual meeting.

President Dan Strehlow, (right) enjoying lunch following the meeting. Along with Art and Kathy Luedtke, Sam Willis and Steve Wolverton.

Al Carstensen needs a rest on Denny Kohn's shoulder after his big meal.

A Solemn Task

Serving as an acolyte is a solemn task and is done with great reverence. Students in preparation for Confirmation are asked to train and serve in this role for any worship service. As the altar candles and Christ candle are given light, the congregation is formally invited to enter into an attentive time of worship. Being adorned in belted robes and pausing to address the altar are markers of an acolyte(s) doing his/her task. Serving as acolytes for their first time on February 11 were Violet and Greta Sieben.

An Eight-Man Take-Down

The Advent mural, which gave richness to the Advent/Christmas season has been dismantled and is in storage until December. Thanks again to project chair, Al Todnem for bringing the community paint-by-number project forward through his work on the Stewardship Ministry Team. Coupled with the theme "Community Grows Here" made the mural project a perfect beginning. (59 painters, 299 volunteer hours)
